All guardians fly on a "first come, first served" basis. Experienced guardians may be pulled forward to fill certain mission-critical requirements, e.g., squad leader.

The requirements to be a guardian are the same as when you last flew. CPR certification is required for those flying to Washington, DC. Medical Information form, Fit to Fly (over age 70) form, and Guardian Roles/ Responsibilities will be provided when you are assigned to a flight. You will be asked to sign a "do not sue" form at the first Preflight meeting.

Experienced guardians get a little price break - they are asked to donate $200 (vs $250 for first time guardians). Flightless Honor Flight guardians are asked to donate $50. Villages Honor Flight is a 501c3 charity, all donations are tax deductible.
