NCIS episode spotlights Honor Flights – Tues. March 28 - NCIS episode is slated to air on CBS at 8pm. While the storyline is fictional, and a few Honor Flight-specific details may be less than completely accurate, the overall portrayal of Honor Flight is exceedingly positive. On Nov. 5, 2011, Corporal T-5 Hubert John Anderson, U.S. Army, retired, flew with Stars and Stripes Honor Flight, out of Milwaukee, to visit his World War II Memorial in Washington DC. His experience was such an inspiration to his granddaughter-in-law, Gina Lucita Monreal, a writer on the popular CBS series NCIS, she vowed to create an episode spotlighting the mission and good work of Honor Flight. She found her inspiration for the episode in her grandfather-in-law’s Honor Flight experience, and the renewed sense of pride and purpose with which he returned home after his day of honor in Washington, DC. If you like this, come to the “Welcome Home” on Wednesday night, and the others to come! Info below.

Camaraderie Foundation is now accepting applications for its 2017-2018 Mentor Leadership Program Class IV for both Protégés and Mentors. Applications are due by close of business on Fri. April 13. A Protégé is a fairly junior Veteran who is at a point of transition in his/her life (Veterans in college who will soon graduate; Veterans who have a job, but want a new career; and soon-to-be Veterans who are still in the military). The Mentors (sometimes called co-mentors) are typically local Veterans who are successful business leaders from the local community. Up to 15 Protégés will be selected this year starting May 9 to join the 2017-2018 Mentor Leadership Program (MLP) Class IV. The MLP program is designed to expand the skills and knowledge of Protégé Veterans by assisting them in getting better networked in the local community. Through collaborative and interactive experiences, class members learn valuable skills, enhance their community awareness, and use their collective knowledge to engage in meaningful community service projects in central Florida. MLP Class IV will run for 12 months and will include an orientation, networking events, volunteer outreach events, and five educational sessions. At the end of the year, we hold a graduation/scholarship reception for all sponsors, Mentors and Protégés where the most deserving Protégés will be announced as the MVPs and win a scholarship to attend Leadership Orlando or Leadership Seminole, two of Florida's best community leadership programs (value of $2,200-$4,500).
